THE HOME

Wedding Venue Hire

The Museum of the Home is a perfect venue for couples looking for a characterful city wedding or civil partnership.

All of the spaces described are licensed for civil ceremonies, as well as receptions. With a charming mix of gardens, heritage and contemporary spaces, use multiple areas for your wedding and celebrations within one venue and make the most of the space throughout the day; raise a toast in the Herb Garden, take group photos on the Lawns or dance the night away in the Garden Atrium.

Situated in zone 1, our 300-year-old Georgian almshouses are surrounded by vibrant East London in the heart of Hackney.

The Museum faces Hoxton station, is well served by buses on Kingsland Road and is only a ten-minute walk from Old Street tube.

Museum of the Home is a registered charity and all profits from venue hire go directly to supporting the Museum's cultural, learning and outreach programmes. Get in touch with our team at

Chapel

At the heart of the Museum, you will find the original almshouse chapel - a beautiful, high-ceiling space complete with wooden pews and pulpit. Almshouse residents were obliged to attend services here each week.

The Reading Lounge, next to the Chapel, provides additional space for receptions with a stunning wooden staircase and warm, lounge-like atmosphere. Private access for your guests to the Museum's galleries is included in the hire of these spaces.

This 300-year-old space can be hired on for non-secular events and ceremonies on Mondays 9am - 11pm, or Tuesday - Sunday 6pm - 11pm.
